

COUNCIL CHAMBERS -- CITY OF LODI
CITY HALL -- CITY OF LODI

THURSDAY, MARCH 6, 1941.

Pursuant to the adjournment taken by the Clerk, from its regular meeting of March 5, 1941, the City Council met in adjourned regular session at 8:00 o'clock P.M. on Thursday, March 6, 1941, Mayor Steele presiding, Councilmen Bull, Graffigna, Riggs, Weihe and Steele present, none absent.

The minutes of the last meeting held February 19, 1941 were read, approved as read and so endorsed by the Mayor.

No persons appearing at this time, the order of public hearings was passed and the Council proceeded to hear communications and reports.

A letter from Chief of Police, C. S. Jackson recommending the purchase of two machine guns was ordered laid over until it could be taken up under the head of new business later in the meeting.

Another letter from Mr. C. S. Jackson recommending the purchase of two-way radios for the Police Department was ordered referred to the Committee on Public Health and Safety.

Reports of the Chief of Police for the month of February and that of the Poundmaster for the same month were received, read and ordered filed.

A letter from the League of California Cities in regard to the mid-year meeting of Mayors and Councilmen to be held in Fresno was read and the Council determined that the necessary expenses of any of its members who might find it possible to attend would be deferred by the City.

The Clerk reported that Mr. O. V. Campbell of the Public Administration Service would be available to meet with the Council on the Monday following at 8:00 o'clock P.M.

A communication from the Federal Electric Company in regard to the non-payment of its bill for a fire alarm whistle was referred to the Superintendent of Public Utilities, it being the intent of the Council that at least one more trial should be had before it was accepted or rejected.

The petition of C. H. Olson and others, together with the recommendations of the City Planning Commission in opposition thereto asking that Pinkerton Avenue be laid out as a fifty foot street was received and read. On motion of Councilman Graffigna, seconded by Councilman Weihe, the recommendations of the Planning Commission was approved that this street should be opened at a width of sixty feet between property lines.

Councilman Weihe was authorized to purchase materials for the playgrounds at a cost of approximately $40.00.

Mr. John A. Henning reported that the Union Ice Company had rejected his proposal for the installation of new transformers at the cost of the company, later thereon to be paid by the City.
